Dated Bangalore, 3rd April 1909.

Sir,

Mr. Burkill, Officiating Reporter on Economic Products to the Government of India wishes to procure for study and exhibition in the Indian Museum, Calcutta, a representative series of indigenous paper manufactures as carried on in the Mysore State.

The Resident will be much obliged if the Durbar can kindly arrange for the supply to the Museum of samples from the Bangalore, Chitaldrug and Shimoga Districts, illustrating the different stages of manufactures.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

T. Copeland

First Assistant Resident.
